

Passages to Recovery, Inc. Outpatient Treatment Annual Report:
January 2025 – December 2025

Admissions:

- Total Admissions: 43
- Average Age at Admissions: 42 years

Primary Insurances:

- Community Care Behavioral Health: 39
- Other: 4

Discharges:

- Total Discharges: 32
- Successful Discharges: 11

Patient Demographics:

- Race:
 - White: 26
 - Black: 16
 - Declined: 1
- Gender:
 - Female: 14
 - Male: 29

Analysis:

The annual report of Passages to Recovery, Inc. demonstrates its commitment to providing essential substance use disorder treatment services to a diverse clientele. With a total of 43 admissions and 31 discharges within the reported period, the program has been actively involved in catering to the substance use disorder treatment needs of the community.

The average age at admission, standing at 42 years, indicates that Passages to Recovery, Inc. serves individuals across various age groups.

The racial makeup of the clients admitted in 2025 is: 26 White, 16 Black and 1 declined to answer.

The gender distribution of clients admitted in 2025 is: 29 Males and 14 Females.

Regarding insurance coverage, Community Care Behavioral Health continues as the primary insurer, with a significant majority of patients (39 out of 43) covered under its plans. This highlights a strong partnership between Passages to Recovery, Inc., and Community Care Behavioral Health, and along with the demographic data indicate a focus on providing accessible substance use disorder treatment services to a wide range of individuals.

The average length of stay, calculated at 120.86 days, suggests that patients at Passages to Recovery, Inc. receive comprehensive and sustained support during their treatment and possibly reflects the center's ability to provide immediate intervention and crisis management services.

In conclusion, Passages to Recovery, Inc. continues to demonstrate its effectiveness in addressing the substance use needs of members of the community, providing inclusive and comprehensive services to individuals across different age groups and insurance coverages. The program's commitment to delivering quality care is evident in its diverse patient demographics and notable events throughout the reporting period.

Passages to Recovery, Inc. reported a total annual revenue of $4,144,965.21 for reporting year 2025.